Advancing Women in Agricultural Technology Creating Brave Spaces & Embracing Diverse Women

Government

National Academies

Address Grand Challenges by providing objective advice to inform public policy.

Confront challenging issues to identify best solutions to persistent problems, and more importantly, develop and fill gaps in the leadership pipeline.

Congress

Engage with members of Congress who use social media to announce policy positions and discuss constituent issues.

Engage with elected officials who post on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram to address social issues.

Education

Leadership Programs

- STEM Majors
- Public Administration
- Political Science
- Education
- Women & Girls in Politics

Academy

- Minority Serving Institutions
- Historically Black Colleges & Universities (HBCU)
- Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs)
- Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCUs)
- Asian American and Pacific Islander Serving Institutions (AAPISIs)
- Public, Private & Charter Schools

Changing Landscapes

Industry

Innovate Solutions to Persistent Problems

- Social Justice
- Food Insecurity
- Housing
- Racial Inequity
- Sexual Harassment
- Disproportionate
 Outcomes

Influenced by Social Movements

- Black Lives Matter
- Me Too
- Environmental
- Global Justice
- Immigrant Rights
- Farm Worker

Nonprofits

Groups

Social Advocacy

- Accreditors
- Faith Based Organizations
- NAACP
- ACLU
- National Organization for Women (NOW)
- Urban Institute
- National Forum for Black Public Administrators (NFBPA)

In the Public Interest

- Serve People in critical areas
- Support Charitable strategies
- Partner with Foundations
- Align Training with Professional Associations
- Organize Activities with Social Clubs
- Network with Pan Hellenic Sororities

Source: Berry-James, R. M. (2020). Concept Map of Changing Landscapes in Leadership: Creating Brave Spaces and Embracing Diverse Women. North Carolina State University, Department of Public Administration. Raleigh, NC.